About Me

I am J Navaneet, a versatile individual driven by an ambitious pursuit. I excel in the arts, leveraging my abstract mind to create captivating visual expressions. I am proficient in programming innovative solutions that push the boundaries of technology. Complementing these skills, I actively engage in debating, honing my diplomacy through the Model United Nations. At end of the day, I find solace in crafting creative poems and stories. My diverse skill set and unwavering commitment to continuous learning define my journey.

Experience

Art and Paintings

A well experienced realism and abstract artist

Art has been my passion since the age of 4. The renowned words of Picasso, "A drawing can never be finished; it's when the artist abandons it when he's satisfied," have always inspired me to strive for excellence. Thus, I have gained extensive experience in realistic and abstract drawings, and delved to learn the world of painting. My artworks have been showcased in exhibitions and I have been honoured with medals, and recognitions from successful people around the world.

Programming

An inquisitive and ever-growing full stack Developer

Developing applications have been engaging and inspiring me since the age of 12. I have contributed to many innovative projects and solutions like my personal portfolio, the Alien Runner, and the Ripen group of operating systems - a collaborative effort with a dedicated team, under the collective brand known as InterrZap. These ever-growing experiences have honed my skills as a proficient and versatile developer with a continual desire to enhance my programming repertoire.

MUNner

An eloquent, Persuasive, and insightful Diplomat and Public Speaker

The study of Geopolitics, as a Diplomat in the Model United Nations, has always captivated and stimulated my intellectual curiosity. This significant chapter in my life has boosted my public speaking, debating, leadership, and wisdom of foreign affairs of various nations. So far, my journey has encompassed 4 MUN experiences and growing. This remarkable journey continues to inspire me to strive for greater achievements and has provided profound insights into navigating the intricacies of geopolitical society.
